Margaret Dalton

1940 - 2009

Margaret's Cafe & Bakery is proudly named after Margaret L. Dalton, Jackson Rancheria Casino Resort's founder.

Margaret was born in Tuolumne, California to her Native American Mother, Tessie Jeff, and her non-Indian Father, Clyde Hughes. When she was 16 years old, Margaret left Calaveras High School and married Earl Dalton. Together, they moved to Jackson Rancheria.

The Jackson Rancheria Band of Miwuk Indians established a formal government in 1979. In that meeting, Margaret was elected Tribal Chairperson. In 1984, Margaret began her search for private investors after reading about the success of a Florida Seminole Tribe's Bingo Hall. The Tribe opened their first Bingo Hall one year later, but it was a rocky start on their path to self-reliance.

The Bingo Hall opened and closed three times. But with Margaret's incredible determination, she convinced her Tribal Government to let her try one more time. In 1991, with backing from honest investors, Jackson Indian Bingo opened its doors.

In honor of Margaret's vision, determination, and accomplishments, the Tribe has declared her birthday, February 9, to be Founder's Day.
